A Webinar for Registrants

Thursday, Feb. 6
2 – 3:30 p.m. Eastern

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services invites you to participate in a webinar on Thursday, Feb. 6, from 2 to 3:30 p.m. Eastern.

During this webinar, USCIS representatives will provide an instructional presentation of the new H-1B electronic registration process in myUSCIS for registrants. Another webinar specifically tailored for attorneys and representatives will be held on Tuesday, Feb. 11.

On Jan. 9, USCIS published a Federal Register notice to formally announce the implementation of the H-1B electronic registration process for fiscal year 2021 H-1B cap-subject petitions.

H-1B cap-subject petitioners, including those eligible for the advanced degree exemption, are required to first register prospective beneficiaries electronically with USCIS and pay the associated H-1B registration fee in order to enter the beneficiaries into the selection process for filing an H-1B cap-subject petition for FY 2021.

We are hosting this webinar to allow users to familiarize themselves with the new electronic registration process.
